

April 15, 1940.

Mr. Randy Dixon,
2041 W. Columbia Ave.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Randy:

I am writing all the Sports' writers of our Eastern Weeklies asking them to be the guest of The Cuban Stars, The New York Black Yankees and The Newark Eagles at a little Informal Get Together Friday Night, April 19th, 1940 at The Black Yankees Headquarters, 2289 - 7th Ave., New York City at 9 P. M.

Aside from the baseball, there is a matter I believe to be of great importance, that this occasion would present a grand opportunity to discuss.

Please let me know whether to expect you.

Mr. Semler, Pompey and Manley are all away with their Ball Clubs, so I will have to act as your Hostess. I would love to have the Society Editor of your Paper also, will you ask her for me? Explain that it is all very informal.

Looking forward to seeing you.

Very truly yours,
